Anti-Hazing Policy

Hazing is defined by Davis University as doing, requiring, or encouraging any act or behavior regardless of the participant's willingness or reluctance that is associated with initiation into or continued affiliation with any student or other organization/group that causes or creates a substantial risk of physical or mental harm or humiliation to any person.

No employee, student organization, individual student, or alumnus may conduct or condone hazing activities.

The complete Anti-hazing policy is available in the Student Handbook.
