COURSE DESCRIPTION: A survey of the social, economic, cultural, and political history of African Americans from the colonial era to the present. Topics include the transatlantic slave trade and African Diaspora, slavery and freedom, reform and radicalism, and assimilation and nationalism.

TEXT: Freedom On My Mind, combined Volume, 2ed, Deborah GrayWhite, Mia Bay and Waldo E. Martin, Bedford/St. Martin's Macmillan Learning, ISBN:9781319021337

PLAGIARISM AND COPYRIGHT INFRINGEMENT POLICY: Work that is found to be plagiarized receives a grade of zero and often causes a student to fail a class. Documentation of plagiarism is added to the student's academic file as a violation of accepted student conduct and is subject to disciplinary action. Plagiarism is the use of another person's exact words, or their ideas written in the student's words without giving the original author credit.

Plagiarism can result from any of the following:

- Quote material directly without using quotation marks.
- Paraphrase the original so that many of the phrases are the same as the original. A good rule is no more than 3 or 4 words in a row should be the same as the original.
- Copy the original sentence pattern, substitution synonyms for key words.
- Neglect to indicate the source of the original material.
